LIBRARY RESOURCES

Do-It-Yourself Collection

The law library has a collection of books written specifically for the non-attorney litigant. A list of these titles can be accessed using the library catalog searching with the keyword: self-help.

Formbook Collection

Included in the text collection are books that contain sample forms. These forms can be adapted by the user to suit the user's situation. Many of the formbooks provide forms in word processing format that can be accessed on library computers.

Maryland Collection

Includes Maryland case law, the Maryland Code, Maryland Rules of Procedure, Maryland regulations (COMAR), the Maryland Law Encyclopedia and a collection of texts on Maryland Law.

United States Collection

Includes access to the United States Code, federal and regional case law, the codes of other states, legal encyclopedias and law texts.

REMOTE ACCESS MAY BE AVAILABLE FOR SOME
RESOURCES—CALL THE LAW
LIBRARY FOR MORE INFORMATION

Reference Service for the Non-Lawyer

Law Librarians can assist the non-lawyer by providing access to the collection and the library's online resources. This includes assistance in the use and finding of legal information but does not allow for the interpretation of these materials or advice on the best way to proceed with a legal matter.

Remote services include:

- ♦ Legal research assistance
- ♦ Distribution of Westlaw passwords
- ♦ Document delivery

In-person services are limited to:

- ♦ Legal research and trial preparation
